DISCUSSION PANEL — Slavery in America: Modern Day Human Trafficking
When: Wednesday Nov. 4
Where: Catonsville, room TBA
Boys forced to be soldiers—but what about girls? Free the Slaves, a Washington D.C.-based nonprofit, estimates there to be up to 27 million active slaves in the world today, more than at the height of the Transatlantic slave trade. Most are women and girls. Hear first hand experiences of a modern-day slave, who is currently a CCBC student, and the hero who helped rescue her.
