

CCBC Athletics 2010

CCBC

Student athletes Dwayne Allen (CCBC Dundalk), Kurtis Levere (CCBC Essex), Ernest McGill (CCBC Catonsville), and Brandon Riley (CCBC Essex), were named to NJCAA All Region-XX Men's Basketball Teams.

Softball teams (CCBC Catonsville and CCBC Dundalk) and Baseball teams (all CCBC campuses) participated in season opening trips to Florida and North Carolina.

CCBC Essex and CCBC Catonsville Men's Lacrosse teams were ranked #3 and #9 respectively in the NJCAA Men's Lacrosse Pre-Season National Poll.

CCBC Catonsville

The CCBC Catonsville Lady Cardinals Lacrosse program was ranked #3 in NJCAA Women's Lacrosse Pre-Season National Poll.

Shameka and Shaneka Gordon, former student athletes at CCBC Catonsville and the University of West Florida and members of the CCBC Catonsville NJCAA Women's Soccer (2007) and Women's Lacrosse (2008) National Champion team were drafted in Women's Professional Soccer League draft conducted January 15, 2010. The Atlanta Beat drafted Shameka in the 3rd round and Shaneka in the 7th round. Shaneka was a 2007 NJCAA First Team All-American.

CCBC Dundalk

CCBC Dundalk student athletes Teaira Scott and Breonna Brewer were named to the All-Maryland JUCO Conference Women's Basketball Team. At the time of publication, the NJCAA Region XX Women's Basketball Tournament and voting for NJCAA All-Region XX Women's Basketball teams had not concluded.

CCBC Essex

CCBC Essex Women's Cross Country was named a NJCAA Cross Country Coaches Association Academic All-American team with a 3.27 GPA for the fall semester.

CCBC Essex Women's Cross Country student athlete Joanna Barranco was named an NJCAA Cross Country Coaches Association Academic All American with a fall semester GPA of 4.0.

CCBC Essex made tournament appearances in both the NJCAA Region XX and Maryland JUCO Men's Basketball Tournaments and finished 14-11, the highest win total in the past six season.

Former CCBC Essex and North Carolina State student athlete Korede Aiyegbusi was selected by the Kansas City Wizards in the second round of the Major League Soccer SuperDraft conducted Thursday, January 14, 2010. Korede was a two time NJCAA All American while at CCBC in 2006 and 2007.