

RUBRIC FOR ATTENDANCE...

There are forty-three (43) class meetings this semester. You will get a point for each class meeting; the other seven points are freebies. That may not seem like much of a penalty, but enough classes missed will affect how you participate and what you learn during the course. It'll add up!

You will not be penalized for not being here if:

- you had not yet joined the class (you hadn't signed up for it yet); or
- you have an excused absence (being sick, having a flat tire, or something along those lines are good excuses; sleeping in is not an excused absence - especially for an evening class)
